

This is the building of Civil Engineering, it belongs to the Polytechnic University of Catalonia. This building is open on weekly days from 7:30 h to 23 h. This building is open on Saturdays from 8 h to 14 h, and it is closed on Sunday and holidays. For more information about building timetables you can check the website of the university www.upc.edu. Visitors are allowed, anyone can access the building, there is no dress code. There are two departments in this building: the department of Construction and the department of Architecture. Regarding academic offer, you can study here the bachelor degree in Civil engineering or the bachelor degree in Environmental Engineering. The center offers three master's: the master in Civil Engineering, the master in Urban Mobility and the master in Structural Construction Engineering. It offers also the Doctoral Program in Civil Engineering. There is a library in the first floor, you can access it with a student card. You can find in the library different literature genres, you just have to ask the librarians so that they can assist you. In case that you want to know the academic calendar and the exams calendar, please visit the website www.upc.edu. There is a lost and found office in this campus, in the first floor next to the stairs. There is an auditorium at the end of the corridor in the ground floor. There are no medical offices in this building, in case you have any problem or emergency, you can go to the concierge office at the entrance of the building, or call to 9 0 3. The toilets of this building are located next to the stairs, there are toilets in all the floors. For some snacks food or drinks you can go to the cafe in this building, located in the second floor. If you want to heat your own food, you will find microwaves in the second floor. This building is located near an underground station where you can take the green line. There is also a bus stop at the right of the main entrance of the building. In case you want to meet a specific professor, call the phone 9 0 2 and they will help you with that. If you are looking for student accommodations, call the phone 9 0 1 and they will help you with that. There is Wi-fi available in this building, you can connect with your student account. For more information check the website www.upc.edu. There is a parking available for all type of vehicles, it is in the ground floor. You can access it through the garage door next to the main entrance of this building.